My dear Miss Tarbell:

It made my wife very happy to see you honored at the World's Fair on Monday, June 5.

We afterwards went to the Career Tours headquarters where we saw you again and I hoped to be able to introduce my wife as she is a very great admirer of yours, but you had slipped away before the opportunity offered.

Would you be interested in coming to her school to see what she is trying to do in the art educational way? After which we hope you can dine with us. Whatever hour is convenient for you will be agreeable to us--either for luncheon or dinner.

Sincerely yours,

W. R. Leigh.
