

June 29, 1922

Mr. Norman Hapgood,
119 W. 40 St.,
New York City.

My dear Sir:

Miss Tarbell is out of town. She expects to return next week, at which time your letter of the 22nd inst. will be placed before her. From what I know of her engagements for the next few months, I think it would be out of the question for her to undertake the articles in question. However, she will probably write you herewith in the course of the next week or two.

Very truly yours,