Dear Mr. Trench:

Thank you for remembering my interest in Savings Programs for Employees. This is a fine showing. What will the Utility Bill do to your securities? It makes me uneasy.

I was sorry, too, that you could not stay for dinner Wednesday evening. It was delightful to have a talk with Mrs. Trench whose just and lively mind always is such a pleasure to see in action. As for Miss Barbara it is not often that one is complimented as well as humbled by such concentrated observation. You fear the appraisal. Her "she knows everybody" is I am fearful an unintended criticism for I don't I was only giving the appearance. Barbara is a remarkable child, interesting as she can be and what delights me - no exhibitionist.

With best wishes to you all.

Cordially yours

Mr. William Trench
