

Mr. Gould

November 16, 1937

Dear Mr. Gould:

It is consoling to know that you have found something which you think worth your quoting in an interview of mine. I talk too much, the result that sometimes woefully irresponsible remarks get into print. But this isn't so bad, is it?

I shall be pleased if you think it worth quoting in your editorial column.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Bruce Gould
Gustis Publishing Company
Philadelphia, Pa.