

October 14, 1939

Dear Miss Wilson:

Here is the little article on the Pen and Brush which I promised you. I am afraid it is a longer than you suggested - two thousand words is what I read, but in looking over your letter I see you say two. I can cut it down if you wish.

I hope you will agree there is something in the point I try to make.

Very sincerely

Miss Rachel M. Wilson
25 West 45th Street
New York City