

February 9, 1939

Dear Mr. Stewart:

I have just returned to New York from an absence of a fortnight and find on my desk your letter of February third. I am glad that the booklet on Anti-Semitism is soon to appear. There is need of all the warnings we can give.

But, dear Mr. Stewart, it is not possible for me to speak on the radio. I am overwhelmed with work - not very well - and badly out of voice. Much as I regret to refuse I shall have to do so.

Look for younger material!

Very sincerely

Mr. Donal Ogden Stewart
