

JUDGES' CHAMBERS
TWENTY-NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
OF PENNSYLVANIA

DON MARSHALL LARRABEE
PRESIDENT JUDGE

WILLIAMSPORT, PA.

December 6, 1939.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
126 East 19th Street,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am mailing to you a copy of the December issue of The Record, the quarterly journal issued by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, which contains a sketch on William McKinley's associations with Allegheny.

It shows cuts of two views of the memorable excursion made by a delegation of Allegheny students, as part of a large group from Crawford County, to the home of McKinley in September 1896. These photographs I have been able to preserve down through the years, although they have become somewhat faded, and the publisher has been able to give us remarkably clear reproductions in this journal.

That never to be forgotten trip, on a perfect September day, is easily the outstanding memory of my school days at Allegheny.

Incidentally, the editor of this journal informed me that the circulation of this December issue will be forty one thousand copies, among the alumni and undergraduates of the fraternity, as well as exchange lists. Thus the fair name of our old school will be brought to the attention of a wide circle of college men in connection with the memory of one of our ablest and best loved presidents.

Asking you to please accept this copy with my compliments, I am,

Sincerely,
D. M. Larrabee
D. M. Larrabee.