

THE EDITORS OFFICE
WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION
NEW YORK

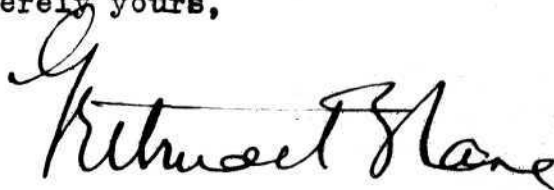

August 13, 1917.

Dear Miss Tarbell,

I hope you are not forgetting that you are going to do an article for us on "Patriotic Buying," or "Patriotic Shopping" I think we called it. The enclosed editorial from the Tribune you may possibly not have seen. Please don't bother to return it.

If you should find time to write the article between now and October first, with the idea that it would be published probably in the January number, I think it would fit in with our plans very well.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Miss Lane

TITLES SUGGESTED FOR A SERIES OF ARTICLES
BY MISS TARBELL.

- I. THE TALKATIVE WOMAN ✓
- II. THE DISORDERLY MAN.
- III. WOMAN ACCORDING TO THE 15TH CENSUS. ✓
- ~~IV.~~ IV. THE BREAKING POINT. ✓
- ~~V.~~ V. A GIRL'S THOUGHTS ✓
- VI. "I DO NOT HAVE TO WORK."
- VII. WOMAN AS A SOCIAL BUSHWHACKER.
- VIII. IS THE "NEW WOMAN" NEW? ✓
- ~~IX.~~ IX. CONCENTRATING ON EVERYTHING. ✓

Denimism - Discussion -
Contemporary fact & opinion
A bit of Dial as a break - eternal solentation to corrupt with mapping personal experience
Satires -
A social Blue Prints -