Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th Street,
New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I brought my letter to the office for your New York address, and found here this letter from Miss Fisher, which I enclose. You may, if you like, return it to Mrs. Shelby for her files.

Today, Miss Patterson has a letter from C. Scapeschi, stating that he has expressed the letter to the Queen of Roumania, for the signatures, and he also requests that we shall purchase the two flags as described in the letter which I enclose, and send them to him with the letter, when we have added the signatures, and he will "fix it together with container and deliver it both back to us". He also says that he would be "obliged for a call of some one of Committee when you are in New York". If it is possible for you to call, I know you will do so.

We have a letter from Dr. Shaw, saying that she reached her destination on Sunday morning, and seems to be in very good spirits.

Be sure and let me know if there is anything that you want me to do before your return.

Enclosure.

Very sincerely yours,

[Signature]

Clara M. Lamar
