Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East 19 Street
New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell,

I am just penning this note to tell you that my home address now is 63 West 87 Street and the telephone Schuyler 9236, shall you have occasion to call on me, though I can be reached at Columbia just as easily.

I trust that you received the Copland's poems which I send you in August in good order.

You might also be interested to know, if you do not know it already, that Professor Fox is sailing for Europe early in December to be gone for several months.

Trusting that you are in good health.

Respectfully yours,

Walter C. Langsam
