Dear Miss Tarbell:

Last winter you received very graciously ^{done} my editing of your manuscript ALL IN THE DAY'S WORK. Now, remembering the book as one of the most interesting biographies I have read, I have decided to add it to my private library.

May I send my copy to you for the insertion of your autograph?

After the book comes back from you I am going to request the signature of John Phillips, who figures so largely in it, and whom I know very pleasantly at The Players.

Sincerely yours,

George H. Gibson
