Dearest Ida Tarbell

Are you cool under your "Wain Oak's" but I know there were days, when you were not, every thing is stirring up here in heat and no work. I don't think outside people know the terribleness of the flood as near us, a man from over there said the noise & water much greater than Niagara Gallego the road water rushes on with his men and best equipment and is giving his true, that man is really great yet never a word in praise of himself. David and Daisy you here and David is so handsome and delicate he saw our two miles of glass houses for roses and 7000 dozen cut roses for packing and the new patented rose which delighted them as he arranged the idea of planting plants and had much trouble getting the department to agree; they both talked with affection of you and wondered if they could see you en route but they were somehow the card only knows ^{how} going to Minn through via the addition backs. If you could write them or me a note, I'm sure they would certainly stop. They are very lovable ladies child Nancy Bell is a striking creature such eyes (all large sweet dipping voice wonderful picture, this with Madame Homer at Lake George now. I just read an article of you in "Reader Digest" ~~which~~ I both ~~the~~ thing at some ~~and~~ is always sending me a copy. The good articles "concluded" are spoiled, the very ~~concluding~~ may take part or ideas out that you and ~~that~~ some low seems to me ~~that~~ Mrs Sutter gives me "Attentive" and Mrs Ball the Daily N.Y. Times and I take "The American Architect" which gives a new interest and speculation as to future buildings. The garden is surrounded by ~~which~~
