

CLARK H. GETTS

WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL • NEW YORK CITY

October 12, 1936.

Mr. Clark H. Getts,
Waldorf-Astoria,
New York City.

My dear sir:

This will authorize you to accept for me a radio engagement on the Heins Program for ~~September~~ Nov. 20th or a satisfactory date to be arranged, at a fee of $ 100.00 net to me.

I understand that this program will be broadcast at 11:30 AM and will be re-broadcast for the Pacific Coast, the re-broadcast to be included in this arrangement.

I understand that the material will cover about two minutes of speech and 300 to 325 words, and that I will have this material in your hands in final form at least one week before the date of the engagement, for your approval and editing.

Such letters as are received by the Broadcasting Company, the Heins Corporation or you, addressed to me, following the broadcast, you or the Heins Corporation are privileged to open, it being understood that you will forward these to me after you have made use of them, if I so request. I understand that the Heins Corporation will supply a secretarial staff to handle this correspondence.

You will undertake to collect my fee for this engagement and will remit to me promptly following the appearance.

The Heins Corporation is hereby authorized to use my name and photograph in announcing this program to the Press, but will not use these in any way as an advertising endorsement. Your signature under the word accepted, below, will complete this agreement.

Cordially,

Accepted
