Mr. William Hendelson
210 East 68th Street
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Hendelson:

I have your letter of May 24. asking me for more detailed personal information in regard to my life and work.

I appreciate your interest, but it is quite impossible for me to give my time and strength to answering the questions you ask. If they are ever answered it will have to be in connection with work which I have on hand. So you'll have to get out of what I have seen fit to publish about myself so far what you can. I think it should be taken as a matter of course that no piece which has been of any use is done by anybody without struggle.

Regretting that I can be of no further service,
Believe me

Very truly yours,

Ida M. Tarbell
