Dear Miss Tarbell:

In speaking of Bishop Vincent and Chautauqua please do not forget that Lewis Miller was equally important in the work there up to the time of his death, and was back of every phase of Chautauqua. I feel that due recognition should be given to the silent member of the organization who, not being a "platform man", seldom was brought into the public gaze.

The reason I am writing is because, when two or three years ago you addressed the Chautauqua Society of New York, I felt very hurt at the non-recognition of my father's position at Chautauqua.

Very sincerely yours
