Dear Miss Tarbell:

This is in reply of your very kind letter of May 4th. which I greatly enjoyed reading.

Your remark about writing an independent article entitled "Discovering Florida" was no doubt facetious. But seriously, I think it would be a splendid subject for a concluding article. As a matter of fact, Florida has but recently been discovered by Americans. The Spainards beat us to it about three hundred years.

Mr. J. C. Penney wrote me a few days ago that he had the pleasure of showing you over his development at Green Cove Springs. He is a wonderful fellow and I am very fond of him.

With all good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

Chas. Henning
