

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 17, 1933

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Franklin has refused to send any message of this kind because he says he is asked to send so many that he simply would never get through if he did them all. However, both he and I would like to do anything which you would like us to do. So I am wondering if it would help you any if I sent you a message?

Very sincerely yours,

