

1437 WEST OHIO STREET
CHICAGO

June 13, 1913.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
The American Magazine,
New York City, New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am enclosing the leaflet about the Household Workers' Association to which Mrs. Robins referred in a letter to you a short time ago.

Mrs. Robins, I regret to say, will not be in the city when you come through as she has left to be in England to welcome Mr. Robins on his return from his world trip.

The exhibits however may be found at the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy, 116 South Michigan Avenue, and any of the workers in the office of the Women's Trade Union League of Chicago, Room 609 - 166 West Washington Street, will be very glad indeed to give you any additional information you may wish with regard to the Household Workers' Association or any of the other work being handled by the League.

Very truly yours,

Oliver Sullivan

Secretary to Mrs. Robins.
