

Allegheny College

Allegheny College DSpace Repository

<http://dspace.allegheny.edu>

General Correspondence

General Correspondence (Unrestricted Access)

2011-12-28

Letter: Margaret Mason to Ida M. Tarbell

Mason, Margaret

<http://hdl.handle.net/10456/21685>

The copyright owner of this item is unknown. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.

MISS MARGARET NASON
OLD STAGE ROAD
MEDFORD, OREGON

My dear Miss Tardull, -

I wonder if you remember lecturing in Kalispell, Montana one evening quite a number of years ago, and the next day, which was Sunday, having supper with two women on their ranch some five miles from town. The next year when mother and I were in New York you invited us to lunch, and you introduced us to Viola Roeboro, with whom I studied all winter.

For several years after that I received rather frequent letters from Miss Roeboro, the last one from Spain. And since I have heard nothing for two or three years,

I am wondering if you will tell me what has become of her. I can't find one of the things for which I am most grateful that I know her, and to me she is one of the most wonderful, as well as far the most interesting person I have ever known.

I know you are a very busy person, but perhaps your secretary can tell me of Miss Rochester. In her last letter she was looking forward with so much pleasure to Italy. I hope I came up to her anticipation.

Thanking you, I am

Sincerely yours

Margaret Mason