Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am delighted to have had an opportunity of speaking to you this afternoon. In fulfillment of my promise, I send you herewith a copy of our "Declaration of Principles", a perusal of which will acquaint you with our objectives, and also a form card endorsing our campaign for the re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt, for President.

As you already know, we are very eager to include you among the members of our Advisory Committee, and I sincerely trust that your decision may be a favorable one.

A return envelope is sent you herewith for your convenience.

Sincerely yours,
