Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

You must have been puzzled by my reference to a former secretary of yours in my letter about Miss Walter. It was not until several days later that I realized that my memory had tricked me. Miss Walter's sister was secretary to Miss Bertha Tomlinson in the Century Company. I would have no reason for confusing you with Miss Tomlinson but for some reason I had identified Miss Walter with you. The essential facts about Miss Walter as a possible candidate for the work which you suggest are not altered, however, by this error on my part.

Sincerely yours,

Mary Van Kleeck
Director
