

December 1, 1936

Dear Rosie:

I have really worked over this confounded thing, incorporating all of your suggestions which even for you were remarkable, that is more remarkable than I could expect. I hope you will like the thing better. I do.

I cannot believe it, but Macmillans are actually preparing the announcement of the book which they expect to bring out in the Spring.

I sure am going to see you before Christmas. I spent Thanksgiving in the country - a week - grand snow storm.

Love to you

Miss Viola Roseboro
175 Rockland Avenue
New Dorp, S. I.