

The Outlook

287 Fourth Avenue
New York

Office of Theodore Roosevelt

January 31st, 1912.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Naturally I should like to accept any invitation backed by you, and if I could do as your brother desires, and come and speak for the Fifty Club in Philadelphia, of course I would do so. At the present time, however, I am not making any speaking engagements of any kind or sort. I have already refused more than five thousand during the last twelve months. I am really sorry to have to send an unfavorable reply. Please look at my piece on Woman's Rights in this week's Outlook.

With all good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

T. Roosevelt
