

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

SHADOW LANE,
October 3, 1916

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you heartily for letting me see this. I have gone over it with such care as I could, and venture to suggest a few changes for reasons which I hope will be obvious to you and sufficient to justify them.

I need not tell you how warmly I appreciate the whole generous character of the estimate. I cannot endorse it by my own judgment, but I am glad that it is your judgment.

Mrs. Wilson and the other ladies join me in warmest regard. We greatly enjoyed your visit.

Cordially and sincerely yours,

enc.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
152 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City.
