This a lot of money to me, though I would not mind spending it if I really thought the course would help me to become a writer. They also specify that they have a placement bureau, and help secure employment for their apt graduates.

Now, as you are one of the most successful of American journalists and writers, I would like your advice in this matter. Do you think it worthwhile for me to take this course? I am, I must admit, very much interested in it, and would do my best with it. But I would like the opinion of one, who knows a great deal more about these things than I do.

I am hoping that you may be able to aid me in this matter, and am enclosing a self-addressed and stamped envelope for your reply. Your generosity in this matter will be gratefully appreciated.

Thanking you, and wishing you much good health and happiness.

Most respectfully,

Robert Whittemore
