Dear Miss Tarbell:

For a matter of two months I was off in the wilds of Nicaragua and Central America. Too far to thank you for the book you were so good to send me.

All the while, however, I was being enjoyed at home—both by my father who used to belong to General Grant, and also by my thirteen... local Taylor Society at the Town Hall Club, where I hope to see you at least for a moment.

Well, I'll be back in New York soon, and congratulations on the group - and congratulations on the work you have made yourself so remarkably useful to your fellows.

Sincerely,

Whiting Williams.
