

Dear Miss Tarbell,
I will
lunch with you
with pleasure on the first of February, Wednesday, at half past one at the Colony Club. Only
your voice, offering
Jane Adams,

Would have no faith
to luncheon now
am at work again,
but there are some opportunities that contrary duties I hope that the time
will be satisfactory, & that I shall see
you & your sister
next Sunday.
Yours affectionately
Wm. L. Van Hook
