June 14, 1932.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City, New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Your letter of June 4th to Mr. A. W. Robertson, addressed to him at 435 Sixth Avenue, has been received in his absence. For your information, the address which you have is that of the Philadelphia Company, of which he was President some years ago, and from which he came to the Westinghouse Company in February, 1929. His present Pittsburgh address is 1923 Grant Building, and his New York address is 150 Broadway. Communications addressed to either of these will reach him.

Mr. Robertson will be in New York on June 15th, 16th and 17th, and if you will call his office there his secretary will be glad to make any arrangement that will be mutually satisfactory. I know that Mr. Robertson will be glad to see you.

Yours very truly,

J. R. Kelly
