

Miss Tarbell

THE EDITOR'S OFFICE
WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION
NEW YORK

November 21, 1939

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I was very happy to receive your letter of November twentieth and I feel sure you will have some ideas that will be interesting to the readers of the Woman's Home Companion.

I was quite sincere in what I wrote you about your autobiography. I read every word of it and was completely fascinated from beginning to end. I really did not expect any acknowledgment of my letter so your apology was unnecessary.

Sincerely yours,

Gertrude Lane

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 East Nineteenth Street
New York, New York

GBL:w