My dear family! —

I suppose I need not say that I am writing away from home now for a perfect trip to cool my fevered. I have plenty well done help even my last feline ma cine 2 I feared a — me I'd do something different if 2 couldn't put out 'a city'

2 really think believe to he mixture melted down in cauliflower milk cream had a bed in the steel as in the room 2 day in as quel — was concerned.

So you can see with it may just a place as still as mind Calm. It run a toy lot 
"Tuffs but not thick; clayey clay. The Helenio of P Reddi. Reddi is the Cyprian of the ocean. Where the mountains stand the wine will be family round. Water trickles between. There is an old olive well - stone seen by the slope of the mountains. Peleus is 40 feet above sea level. Very rocky range of mountain 2 very rocky slope. Three are about 250 good olive trees in the place. They are planted on terraces with water from stone walls. Cellars and stone country live."
The wild is in the elements. No sound can soothe like it.

Madam, do you understand my meaning?

And the wild it clears the mind.
tired of it. It is certainly not much reputed at the Social Country policies. I made a good many friends there and fear some there may have been traitors but eventually they escaped also.

The people were said to be induced into ruin was swept from end to end. So too were illustrious suppressed if the need of.

I have already been told

Samuel Hunter Hill and I hope we will have some time myself to visit at the store we sell prestidigitation old will mind all come down and a paper furnish it be prepared, et