

SAUL SINGER
FIVE-FIFTY SEVENTH AVENUE
NEW YORK CITY

December 31, 1926.

Miss Ida Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Your letter has given me genuine pleasure. It so happens that we are opening a new branch bank on January 8th.

I am wondering if Tuesday, the 11th, would suit you as well? Mr. Wallen will be delighted to call for you with a car at 120 East 19th Street at twelve o'clock on that date and accompany you to my office here at the bank, and we will then proceed to Garment Center Capitol Club, which is only two blocks away.

There have been some developments on the housing plan since I last wrote you which will intrigue your interest.

Good wishes.

Faithfully,

SS-WW