

THE EDITOR'S OFFICE
WOMAN'S HOME COMPANION
NEW YORK

January 9, 1940

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am sorry to say that this is a very busy week but, fortunately, I am free at tea time on Friday and will meet you at the National Arts Club at four-thirty if that is convenient for you. If it is not convenient, will you call my secretary and we can make an appointment for some day next week.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur H. Lane
