WOODROW WILSON
WASHINGTON D C

25th February 1922

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have been told, and would fain believe, that you wrote the editorial in a recent number of Collier's Weekly entitled "The Man They Cannot Forget."

I wish to express to you my pride and deep pleasure that you should entertain such thoughts of me. It is the favourable verdict of minds like your own which everyone dealing with high and difficult affairs should desire and strive for.

Hoping that I shall many times more have the pleasure I had at Shadow Lawn of exchanging thoughts with you personally, and with best wishes;

Gratefully yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Woodrow Wilson". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the typed name. It features a long, sweeping underline that extends to the right.
