OFFICE OF THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Miss Tarbell:

While I was away from home I read your very interesting article in which you commented with accustomed fairness upon the welfare work of the Corporation. I have received favorable comments upon the article through the mail, and appreciate the spirit which moved you to write it.

I am not unmindful of the fact that some time you are coming in to have lunch with me, although it has been too long deferred. When the heat of summer is passed I shall undertake to persuade you to come.

Looking forward to that pleasure, believe me,

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Raymond La Folle", written in dark ink on a light background. The signature is fluid and somewhat stylized, with a horizontal line underneath it.
