Dear Miss Tarbell:

It was indeed nice of you to write me as you did about my book "Random Thoughts and Memories." I hope sometime I may see you and talk with you about it because I think, in addition to the kind things you said, there must be some critical comments which occur to you which I should like to get.

I shall be very glad to talk with Mr. and Mrs. Coburn when they present your letter.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
