My dear Miss Tarbell:

I've had his letter for the McClure thing. The prescription to me is the best I've heard. I've done some opening & spreading but I'm all right. In the other he says "I've been an awful fool. My doubts & my duties gain just together."

Then my right & true - not like some other things the General has said.
I'm off to Brooklyn - back Tuesday when I look to see you

Yours faithfully
John Phillips
