

Dorothy pg 31

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I fear the paper
article is not for us.

I'm enjoying myself here than I've done here for years. My nervous are better & my family domestic people are as (I'm forced to confess) it did formerly. It's such a delight to enjoy one's children in stead of wanting to run from them.

You must take good care of yourself. Don't cling to New York, if you'd be better
I suppose somewhere else.

How fine that Sam is taking his prescribed life so philosophically.

Yours truly
John S. Thayer
