1917-09-12

Letter: Helen W. Phelps to Ida M. Tarbell, September 18, 1917

Phelps, Helen W.

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/24174

The copyright owner of this item is unknown. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
May 8 3-5 55

My dear Mr. Toddwell,

The news of your illness has only just reached me, and I hasten to send you a little word of sympathy. I can understand from your letter, what it must mean to you.
The greatest error in the case is that by the hours in the screen passion.
I have known for getting to much of that. I have kept I must have the privilege that sum sum of meeting for and another if any chance you look
Dear Miss Phelps,

I am so sorry to hear that your father passed away. It sounds like he was a very dear person. I am sure that he will be greatly missed.

Please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your father. He was such a kind and gentle soul.

Always in Sincere,

Helen M. Turbell

Helen Watson Phelps

Sept. 18th [1917]