

THREE SUTTON PLACE

June 8, 1933

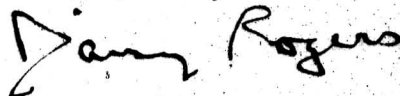

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Upon the receipt of your note enclosing the copy of Miss Perkins' letter, I immediately got in touch with Miss Emma Dot Partridge, who is running the Altrusa dinner.

She said she would immediately take up the matter with Miss Perkins and see if it was not possible for her to hold November sixteenth for the Altrusa dinner, enlisting Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt's co-operation. She has very close connections with the latter.

If it is not possible for Miss Perkins to promise that date, I fancy the club will change to another evening, as the whole point is in having Miss Perkins present.

Sincerely yours,

Secretary to
Miss Morgan
