It is not that I wish to do any less for this department, I wish to do more, but I do see how I could be much more helpful. I think, too, that if I can spend more time at the other libraries, the next part of my bibliography will be very much improved.

If I may make a suggestion about the reorganization, Miss Farbell, I should like to say that I think it would be very much better if Mrs. Wilkes or whoever is to be charge of the department were to get in closer touch with the department by sitting in this room (the large front room). There is a situation here that can best be remedied in that way.

Poor Mrs. Wilkes has been very unfortunate. I hope she will soon be better.

Trusting that I can make my idea clear to you next week if I have not done so,

Yours most sincerely,

Marion Q. Nims
