Dear Mr. Tierney:

If you think I can be of any use in the world to your Old Couples' Fund I, of course, will say yes to your invitation. I will depend upon you to let me know what you want of me as long in advance as possible. I am out of town a good deal.

And won't you send me the old Hungarian musician's address? I have meant to go and see them before this but things have been rather complicated in my small world and I have neglected many things.

Very sincerely
