1922-01-25

Letter: Samuel S. McClure to Ida M. Tarbell, January 25, 1922

McClure, Samuel Sydney

http://hdl.handle.net/10456/24678

The copyright owner of this item is unknown. It is the responsibility of the researcher to identify and satisfy the holders of all copyrights.

All materials in the Allegheny College DSpace Repository are subject to college policies and Title 17 of the U.S. Code.
January twenty-fifth,
1922

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Miss Roseboro' telephoned me this morning about your Ford article. I want it. I have confidence in the subject of the article and I have confidence in the author of the article, so I know it's right.

Also I want your opinion of Miss Agnes Laut. She has some tremendous material on the farm situation apparently and she has an article here on the oil situation.

I am leaving for three days on the farm and will be in Monday and hope we can get together soon after I get back. You can satisfy yourself as soon as you talk to Mr. Gates. You can just write out what you want - you will have it.

Faithfully yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.