

The New REPUBLIC
421 West 21st Street
New York City

January 6, 1922.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
Hotel Powhatan,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Thanks a thousand times for sending me the Introduction to your volume of Lincoln stories. I shall let you know in a couple of days whether we can use it. I am very much in favor of it myself but I have always to get my colleagues' opinion before accepting articles. It looks to me like an exceptionally fine thing.

Sincerely yours,

Harold C. Coby

HC/B *As far as I know, no doubt about my seeing that ~~the~~ introduction.
I have just read it.*