

3 SUTTON PLACE

April 4, 1932.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

As it seems impossible to get more than four members of the A.W.A. Medal Award Jury together before the middle of April, the meeting date has been definitely settled for Thursday, April 7th, at 5:30 o'clock at Miss Marbury's, 13 Sutton Place.

I understand that this was not a convenient date for you, but the week of the 11th was even more difficult about getting the members together.

The next meeting will probably be sometime in May and you will get a notice well in advance. In the meanwhile if there is any chance of your stopping in on your way to the dinner on the 7th, I know the members will be enchanted.

Sincerely,

Secretary to
Miss Anne Morgan.

Miss Ida Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street.
