Here are the bantering. You will get your papers through the mail, but I thought you would like a copy sample from the press. This is the first filing of the Government Printing Office, with all printed in large type. They used a cheaper grade of paper than we were entitled to— but let's not stick at conversation since we preach it reiterated!

Please said right into it with your astute and acute criticisms.

"Kay in Macduff!"

"And we'll cry 'damn' when we have had enough." (Macbeth, up to the minute)

Washington is agog, alert, alive
and a jubilation with the peace cele-boration.

I do hope the mother is convalescing speedily and well.
