

From the papers of William Nelson - a member of Congress in '49.

Springfield, Ill.
June 5, '49

Dear Sir:

Would you not as soon I should have the General Law office as any other Illinoian?
If you would write me to that effect at Washington where I shall be soon. No time to lose.

Yours in haste

A. Lincoln