Mr. F. K. Mathiews,
Senior Editor, Boys' Life,
200 Fifth Avenue, New York.

My dear Mr. Mathiews:

I am back again and find awaiting me your letter of May 15 to Mrs. Blair.

I don't know that any other contract than this letter is necessary for our Boy Scouts' Life of Lincoln, if that is what we are to call it. I did not remember that that was the decision.

The method of payment that you mention, i.e., month by month, will be satisfactory.

It is probable that I shall not be able to give you the full manuscript by September. I think we better have a talk, and if you will call me up on receipt of this letter (Stuyvesant 6674) we can arrange. I shall probably be in town all of this week.

Very sincerely yours,
