

January 17, 1923

Mr. Charles Bell,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Bell:

I am not surprised at Mr. Robert Lincoln's decision about the information I wanted from the Riggs National Bank. And of course I shall not push the matter as long as he lives.

I am most grateful to you for the trouble you have taken, and of course I shall treat the matter confidentially.

With very best wishes, believe me

Sincerely yours,