Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
#120 East Nineteenth St.,
New York City:

My dear Miss Tarbell:

The following inelegant but expressive indication of the temper of the times, may interest you, it was taken from the Muskogee Phoenix of September 17th. I am making some progress with my Mrs., and if still interested may be able to send same for your perusal in a month or so; at the present time, however, we are in the throes of a heat wave—the most caloric of the year.

Mrs. Flanner joins me in kindest personal regards,

Very sincerely,

John W. Flanner.
