Mr. R. M. Eddy
The Newark Courier and Commercial
Newark, N. Y.

My dear Mr. Eddy:

I have been out of town for some days so that I have just received your note, calling my attention to Mr. Henry Reynolds of Newark, N.Y., who, as you say, was privileged to know President Lincoln quite intimately.

I shall be glad if you will forward me the clipping of the recent interview with Mr. Reynolds, which the Courier and Commercial published. With that in hand, I shall know better whether it would be wise for me to personally follow the matter up further. I am greatly obliged to you for your kindness in calling my attention to the matter.

Sincerely yours
